Pratt

Prattonia 2002

Four years ago we came here knowing that this is where we wanted to be: the galleries, the big city, the diversity and a school that could enable us to realize our future.

So here we stand. Maybe not on the pedestal that we sought after, but none the less, we are all here. The Prattonia staff hopes that these pages spark memories of your time at Pratt: friends that you made, teachers that you loved and a school that you called home.

I just try to keep it real! Peace!

I'm a dork. mbebeek@hotmail.com "Crazy friends means crazy times and in what crazy times we've lived in...I'm a dork. Thanks Mom & Dad! Shouts: A! Bryce, my people beat and back home love ya all.

Transferred from a different world...but no regrets...I worked my ass off...but nevermind...met some good heads, but mostly did my own thing...and at the end, having fallen and gotten back up. I'm better off...peace to all of you...see you in a minute. <SY/B

My best memory at Pratt is from my freshman year, 3:00am on a Monday morning. Half awake my best friend and I were leaving the studio to find a winter-scape outside. We spent the an hour building a mound of snow and a jump, and proceeded to ski until daylight.

Years of the most excitement, sadness, motivation, those with, and those who hurt me the most, taught me her most. We're all family. Thank you all for the impact you never knew you had on me.

Hey everybody take a look at me. I'm got great credit! It's I don't have a job but I have a good time with the boys. I must down on the line. I don't need you. So you don't approve? Well, who asked you? I ain't never gonna work, get down in the dirt. I choose to cruise.

A photograph of a building facade with arched windows. A bright yellow vertical pole is in the foreground on the left. The building has a greyish-brown facade and several arched windows with white frames. The image is oriented vertically.
